Orland Man Severs Artery In Fall From Bed-Saved By Mokena Police

Prompt action by Mokena police saved the life of an Orland township resident last Thursday night. The victim severed an artery in his upper right arm as a result of a fall in his room and would have died from loss of blood except for the timely assistance by Police Commissioner Ray Westlund and Officer Joseph Heim.

The victim, Patrick Lavin, 57, a construction worker on the Illinois toll road, is in Silver Cross hospital. He is improving.

Lavin lives in the home of Elmer Carlstrom, 177th st. and Wolf road. He is a native of Ireland.

Thursday night he and Carlstrom watched a TV news program that comes on at 10 p.m. At 10:15 they shut off the set and retired, Lavin in his room upstairs.

Sometime between 10:30 and 10:45 Carlstrom was awakened by a thumping sound and a minute or so later he heard Lavin moving about and called up the stairs to find out if anything was wrong.

Lavin answered that he had fallen out of bed and had cut himself. He had fallen on a coffee tin that he had along side the bed for an ash tray. The edges were quite sharp and cut deep into his upper right arm, severing an artery.

Carlstrom called Dr. P. T. Demus and a few minutes later telephoned Police Commissioner Westlund. Carlstrom said that Lavin refused to go to a hospital and if he wasn't taken immediately he would die. The doctor had succeeded in stopping the flow of blood but before he could arrive Lavin had lost a large quantity of the vital fluid.

Altho out of their jurisdiction—even in another county—Mokena police did not hesitate. Westlund and Heim sped to Carlstrom's home, bundled Lavin up in blankets and rushed him to Silver Cross hospital.

By the time they arrived at the hospital Lavin's pulse was practically non-existent. He was in deep shock and his flesh livid and cold. Lavin was given two pints of blood and a pint of plasma and Friday morning he was taking nourishment and sleeping normally.

Incidentally Thursday was Lavin's birthday and he probably will remember it as the one on which two strangers gave him a grand present now—his life.

GREAT SKY SHOW

A gorgeous display of the Aurora Borealis was seen Monday night by residents of the area and Northern Illinois.

Great bands and sheets of blue, white, orange and pink and an occasional touch of purple filled the northwest skies.

Open House At St. Mary's Hall Set For Sunday

An open house party and dance will be held in St. Mary's school hall, Mokena, at 8 pm. Sunday, Feb. 16.

There will be no admission charge and young and old are invited to attend. Refreshments of coffee, pop, cake, and other soft drinks will be served.

The music will be furnished by the Teen band under the direction of Norval Robinson.

The occasion of the Open House party and dance is the renovation of the interior of the old school and hall, done by the men of the parish last year. The building now has a quite spacious hall upstairs with a completely equipped kitchen in the basement.

Besides parish activities, the building already has become a popular spot for many other purposes. The Mokena Lions club has been holding their monthly dinner meetings here and the Teen club their weekly meetings. It is also well suited for wedding receptions and other social functions.

So that all may have an opportunity to see the work that has been done and to examine the facilities, the public is cordially invited to the Open House.

The new name for the hall is St. Mary's Social Center.

When weather permits, continued improvements will be made to both the inside and outside for the social activities of both the parish and the community.

Frankfort School Band Will Give Concert Sunday

A band concert will be given Sunday, Feb. 16 in the Frankfort school gym by the Frankfort Community Consolidated School band. It will start at 2:30.

No admission will be charged but a free will offering will be taken for the benefit of the band. Everyone is invited to attend and give encouragement to the band members.

Representatives of the planning commissions of Mokena and New Lenox met with the planning commission of Frankfort last week to discuss mutual problem and be advised as to the extent of their powers and responsibilities.

Howard Olson, manager of the Chicago Regional Planning association, was present at the session at the request of the Frankfort group. The meeting was held at office of the B&M Lumber Co. in Frankfort.

The Frankfort and New Lenox planning groups have been functioning for some time but the Mokena planning commission was appointed just recently by Mayor James Marti, who is an ex-officio member of the body.

Maurice Angland, chairman of the Mokena commission was unable to be present at the Frankfort meeting because of a business appointment, but named the following members as representatives, Mayor Marti, Les Brownlee, Albert Kuckenbecker, Lawrence Kohl, Norval K. Robinson, Leo J. Marcoux and Arthur Jackson.

Present from New Lenox were Ceward W. Batson, Walter Baers (Continued to page 16)

Lenten Season to Begin Wednesday

Ash-Wednesday, the beginning of Lent, falls on Feb. 19. Easter Sunday is April 6.

Easter, the chief festival of the Christian year, commemorates the resurrection of Christ.

The last seven days of Lent constitute Holy Week, beginning with Palm Sunday. Good Friday commemorates the day of the crucifixion.

Many churches in the area will have special services on Ash-Wednesday.

Moose Break Ground For New Temple at Harvey on Sunday; Many at Ceremony

Officials of Mooseheart and the city of Harvey attended ground breaking ceremonies Sunday, Feb. 9, of the new Moose lodge, 154th and Dixie highway.

A caravan of local Moose members and officials traveled from the temporary lodge home to the scene of the ceremony, following which refreshments were served by the Harvey Women of the Moose, when the caravan returned.

The previous temple was destroyed in the fire that swept a portion of the Harvey business section recently, but long before that the lodge had decided to build a new home.

Mokena Firemen Save Three Lives With Inhalator, 1957 Records Show

The Mokena volunteer fire department answered 35 calls in 1957, its records show—seven of them on inhalator runs and 28 for fires.

The department purchased an inhalator in the fall of 1956. Their first use of it came in December of that year and a life was saved as a result.

Three lives were saved by Mokena inhalator crews last year, thus proving the worth of the device and the many hours of instruction and drills spent by the men who operate it.

In two instances last year the inhalator was not summoned until the persons for whom it was needed were dead. A spokesman for the department urged the public to make full use of the service and to call at the first sign of distress instead of waiting.

"Apparently some people hesitate to call for the inhalator," the spokesman said, "because they are inclined to minimize their need and fear that the crew might feel provoked if they found the need had vanished. We would rather make a dozen such calls than to miss one where the inhalator would be the difference between life and death."

Being volunteers the members of the department receive no compensation for their services other than the knowledge that they are serving the community and their fellowmen.

The fire calls answered last year included 17 that fall into the brush or grass category; there were two roof fires; three were confined to motor vehicles; three were in railroad trains; one was started by a short circuit in a home and two were attributed to an overheated heating plant. There are no figures summing up the total loss in dollars but the damage was described as "very low."

Youths Get $100 In Stick-Up At Haven Motel

No clues have as yet been found as to the identity of the youths who held up the Haven Motel on route 6 and Cedar road near New Lenox early Thursday, Feb. 6.

Ken Nutter, operator of the motel, was confronted by two youths at 2:40 a. m., one armed with a shot gun and the other with a knife. He was not certain whether one or two youths were in a white and maroon car which was parked on Cedar road while the holdup took place.

The youths made their getaway with between $95 and $100, he told sheriff's deputies.

The youths ripped the telephone from the wall before they left, Nutter reported.

He described one as being tall, another as having dark wavy hair and a third of medium build.

After scooping up the money, they left in the car, driving towards New Lenox, Nutter said.

Deputies sounded an immediate alarm and alerted state and Joliet police.

Mokena volunteer fire department. They assist the departments in neighboring towns and in turn are assisted by them when the need arises.

School Employees of Will County Take TB Tests

During the past week, 1705 teachers and employees of the Will county school system received their annual chest x-rays in a mobile unit provided by the state department of public health. The services of this unit were obtained thru the efforts of Verne E. Crackel, Will county superintendent of schools, Dr. L. L. Fatheree, medical director of the Will county health department, and the Will-Grundy Medical society.

It is now required that each year all school employees shall file a certificate showing they are free from tuberculosis. This is a health measure taken to help protect school children as well as other teachers and employees. The mobile unit was sent in to make it easier for the school employees to comply with the requirement.

The unit was set up in five different locations in the county.

The number of school employees and teachers who were x-rayed indicates that Will county schools are aware of the tuberculosis problem and are ready to do their part in controlling it, it was pointed out. A further indication of the willingness of the schools is portrayed by the fact that all the clerical help necessary to register the teachers and employees was provided by the schools participating.

Low Cost Land Available For University Site

The Regional Association of South Cook-Will municipalities points out some additional reasons why the south Cook County area is a logical location for the proposed branch of the University of Illinois.

The University's lease at the Navy Pier expires in 1962. However, if the school could vacate by 1960, it would cut two years off the target dates for an important link in the development of Chicago as a world port and hasten the development of a University branch by two years, according to Karl Treen, chairman of the Regional Association.

The choice of a large, clean one-owner site such as that proposed in south Cook county would be better than one in a populated area it would take a great deal of time to clear land and erect buildings.

An abundance of low cost land for the University in this area means there is also low cost land for housing and industry which would attract a great many people to support the University.

Registered Nurse To Speak at Will County Youth Club

The February meeting of the Will County Town and Country youth club will be held at 7:30 p.m. Feb. 19, in Green Garden.

A registered nurse will speak on the subject related to health and nursing.

Following the business meeting there will be a recreation period. Refreshments will be served.

All persons over 18 years are invited to come and bring friends.

Extinguish Shed Fire on Mokena St.

Fire of undetermined origin damaged a shed and contents at the rear of the apartments owned by Milton Geuther on Mokena st., yesterday afternoon. The alarm was received by the Mokena fire department about 1:45 o'clock and because of the location—there are many buildings in the area—and to safeguard against possible spread of the blaze Mokena called in Frankfort and New Lenox and firemen from those communities stood by until it was seen there was no danger of the fire spreading.

The garage at the rear of the unoccupied Lutheran parsonage was only a few feet from the shed and became ignited but the blaze was quickly extinguished. The flames in the shed fire were knocked out within a few minutes after firemen arrived but it took about an hour to get all the embers extinguished.

Hold Funeral Rites For Mrs. Hemingway At St. Mary's Church

Funeral services were held Saturday for Mrs. Lillian G. Hemingway, 80, who died last Thursday morning at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Leo J. Marcoux, Mokena, following a long illness.

A solemn requiem high mass was conducted at 10 o'clock Saturday morning in St. Mary's church, Mokena, with the Rev. Cecil Koop officiating. Interment was in St. Mary's cemetery.

Removal was to the Hirsch chapel at Tinley Park where friends called Thursday night and Friday.

Mrs. Hemingway, the former Lillian Grogan, was born in County Clare, Ireland, Jan. 18, 1878, and came to the United States with her parents while she was a small child.

She was married to Edward Hemingway and the couple resided at Chicago until about a year ago when they came to make their home with Mr. and Mrs. Marcoux.

Besides her husband and Mrs. Marcoux (Patricia), Mrs. Hemingway is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Rosemary Wheeler, of Frankfort; two sons, Philip, of Detroit, and Martin, now in Japan and 10 grandchildren.

Reavis Winner of Speech Contest

Reavis high school finished in first place in the annual Southwest Suburban conference speech and dramatics contest held last Saturday, Feb. 8, in Lincoln-Way high's new auditorium.

Carl Sandburg took second place and Lincoln-Way, third, Bremen, fourth, Oak Lawn, fifth and Evergreen Park sixth. Rich was not entered.

The district speech contest, a part of the competition for state honors, is to be held at Sandburg high school a week from Saturday, Feb. 22.

How the students finished in the conference contest has no bearing on the state events. They are not related. The sectional will be held at Calumet City next month and the state finals at Champaign in April.

Lincoln-Way students who placed in the conference contest were: Norvene Foster, Frankfort second in oratorical declamation; Patricia Loucks, Mokena, third in the same category; Garrett White, Manhattan, fourth in original oratory; Kenneth Weber, New Lenox, second in original monolog; Don Lehmann, Mokena, third in extemporé speaking; Sandra Wanzer, New Lenox, second in after dinner speaking; Helen Sheridan, Mokena, third and

Faith and Trust In God Ruled Lincoln's Life

By THOMAS M. FINN
(Author of "The Religion of Lincoln")
(Paulist Feature Service)

Among the men that crowded the stage of the nineteenth century, Abraham Lincoln "was the only real giant," said Leo Tolstoy.

He went on to say that Lincoln became great thru his smallness. He grew to the stature of a giant, because he used the ordinary, everyday circumstances which life dealt out to him to become a humble instrument in the hands of God.

The relentless hardship of pioneering broke his father; but not Lincoln. Poverty, ignorance, the need to tear a living from the soil, the constant companionship of death (before Lincoln was twenty-one it claimed his mother, his brother, his sister and her baby)—these forged in him a spirit too strong to be subdued by any hardship.

For 27 years law was his steady job, and "riding the circuit" was the heart of his practice. In bringing himself and his abilities to the outlying districts, he filled his mind and heart with the people, with their wants and worries.

Out of the long hours spent jogging from place to place came the ironclad decisions about Union, about slavery, about Reconstruction, about Lincoln as God's instrument.

Politics was part and parcel of Lincoln's life, in fact, his first love. Yet by politics he was tried as gold in a furnace. Not a year before his death, a congressman could say: "There are no Lincoln men." One of his own cabinet members intrigued against him. Another used to call him "the original Gorilla." Yet in the Book of Life are written these words: "With malice toward none; with charity for all . . ."

Lincoln was molded for endurance rather than enjoyment, because the instrument God needed to save a country and a people had to be strong. But Abraham Lincoln was a free, a living instrument in the hands of God. The unremitting difficulties in his life could have driven him to almost anything. The fact is that they drove him to his knees, to acknowledge that his own wisdom and that of all about him was just not good enough.

Not long before he died, he sent a message to the widow of a friend: "We are indeed going through a great trial—a fiery trial. In the very responsible position which I happen to be placed, being a humble instrument in the hands of our Heavenly Father, as I am, and as we all are, to work out His great purposes, I have desired that all my works and acts may be according to His Will, and that it might be so, I have sought His aid. . . ."

These words are ninety-five years old. Yet they should be young words, a new message to men, women and children—a people—whom God would mold to be a strong but free instrument of His great purposes.

Buddy Lail, fourth in (serious) play reading.

Students from Lincoln-Way who will compete in the district contest are, Miss Foster, Miss Sheridan, Weber, Lehmann, Miss Wanzer, John Marcoux, Kenneth Soderlund, and William Dusek. Dusek will compete in radio speaking, Soderlund in original oratory and Marcoux in (comedy) play reading.

St. Peter's to Show Special Film on Meaning of Lent

The Rev. Erich Bizer will officiate at the service when a special film will be shown next Sunday morning in St. Peter's Evangelical and Reformed church, Frankfort, on the meaning of the Lenten season.

The Sunday school from the junior department up will see and hear this as a preparation for the Lenten service which will start on Wednesday evening Feb. 19, at 7:30 pm.

ing Feb. 19, at 7:30 pm.

There will be meditation and pictures each Wednesday evening during the Lenten period. The meditation for Feb. 19, will be "Facing the Cross," and a picture will be shown on, "No Other Gods." The public is invited to attend.

Homer's population was increased by the birth of two baby girls during the past week when Mr. and Mrs. George Burcham added a daughter named Deborah Sue to their family on Feb. 6 in Silver Cross hospital, and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Erdmann became the parents of a baby girl on Feb. 5, also in Silver Cross.

On Jan. 19, a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Hammond of Joliet, who is the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Blasius Buck of Bruce road. The baby has been named Debbie Lynn.

Mrs. F. J. Paddock went to Aurora Friday to visit her sister, Mrs. Earl Leffler of Naperville, who underwent surgery in an Aurora hospital Thursday. The patient is doing nicely.

The children of the John Hollister family are victims of chicken pox.

Mrs. Henry Rodgers was detained from her teaching duties at Dist. 33C several days this week. The regular substitute teacher, Mrs. Harvey Ingersoll, was serving on jury. Mrs. R. W. Carlson taught fourth and fifth grades for three days.

Several Homer girls who are members of the Future Teachers' group at LTHS did practice teaching at Lockport area schools last Monday. They are in the junior and senior classes. They are Kathie Bier, Cheryl Sass, Irene Benek and Susanne Burcham.

Mrs. Edward Daley, Mrs. Guy Bump and Mrs. William Daley were among the cooking school visitors in Joliet last week. Mrs. William Daley was the fortunate winner of a grocery prize. Mrs. Edward Daley is said to have attended all of the 25 schools.

The Donald Aspel family have moved to their new home on E. Seventh st. which they recently purchased from Mrs. Wm. Roberts.

The sewing day meeting, sponsored by the Homer Women's Missionary society, was postponed because of icy roads and was held Feb. 12 at the church from 11 to 3 o'clock.

Plans are progressing for the Father-Son banquet Feb. 26. Mrs. John Hollister, Mrs. Henry Rodgers, Mrs. Roy Hanson and Mrs. Charles Jensen are the committee in charge. Tickets are available.

Sunday, Feb. 23 a short business session will follow the worship service, to vote on two items of importance. All interested persons and members are invited to attend.

The P. F. group met Sunday afternoon in the church. Much enthusiasm being shown for the new church bulletin which this group is sponsoring. The first issue is promised for the last week in February and the "dead line" for contributions, which are welcome, will be Feb. 20. Sounds quite professional, doesn't it? If you suggest an appropriate name, which should be a short one, you may win a prize.

Sunday, Feb. 16, Mr. Lou Schweppe will be guest speaker in the Homer church pulpit. He is a college and seminary friend of the Rev. Mr. Hanson, who describes him as "one of the most sincere and earnest men I've ever known."

The Good Luck camp of Royal Neighbors will meet in the Homer church social rooms Thursday, Feb. 20. Hostesses will be Mesdames Marie Cagwin, Lulu Parker, Ida Daley and Gladys Kesser.

Stewart Reiter was home from Urbana for the week end.

ARE YOU A CANDIDATE?

Any citizen, man or woman, with the usual legal voting requirements, may enter the coming contest to elect a new 7-man school board.

Are you a candidate? Do you have children in the public school? Do you wish to help during this period of temporary buildings and rising enrollment? Do you admire those who chose the teaching profession and wish to aid them in their upward struggle? Do you believe in the blessed right of all men to send their children to a school for free education? Do you hope this system ever improves and remains the shining example it now is for the other nations of the world?

Any of us who enjoy reading, love our children, and believe firmly that the above questions should be answered "Yes"—may apply for a petition to try for the job. As Mr. Beam has explained at monthly open meetings of the 3-man board, no background in school administration is required—just willingness to work for progress. There is no pay for the members and it is at the moment a part time assignment. The results depend upon the worth of our candidates.

It is my own personal opinion that at least 21 persons, man and woman, should apply for petitions. That would give us three choices for each of the seven offices. It is also my own opinion that women should comprise at least 1/3 or three of the members of the board. Mothers are present in the community all day and mothers know first hand the problems of their children and their teachers. Are you a candidate?

The petition requires only 50 signatures (or 25 families if husband and wife both sign their legal names). Let's have a strong and healthy campaign with a sufficient number of enlightened and earnest citizens to give us the best new school board in Cook county. Mr. Beam, current president of the school board, told me the one clue to a fine new board would be simply: Diversity of backgrounds.

Are you a candidate? If you wish to be, call Mr. Beam, at SY 8-5581, for information. The time is now.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS Thursday, Feb. 13 CITIZENS COMMITTEE

Guest speaker will be Don Moore, assistant state's attorney, whose speech will throw some light on the recent annexation of some nearby roads of our area and on the much discussed incorporation of some parts of our area. 8 p.m. main school, 184th & Central. Newcomers are invited.

Sat. Feb. 15 BAKE SALE

Mothers club of our school will sell homemade baked goods from door to door, starting at 10 a.m. Satisfy your sweet tooth and benefit the school at the same time!

Sat. Feb. 15

SCHOOL USE ENDED

Civic groups must find other meeting places from this date forward. Several are already available. If you have questions call me, and I might be able to answer some of them. SY 8-5669.

Sunday, Feb. 16 COUNTRY CLUB HILLS CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Sunday school classes will be held for a week or so at 9:30 a.m. in the new parsonage house at 4511 W. 182nd st. For information on adult worship service, call Mrs. Alice MacKenzie, SY 9-5399.

Sunday, Feb. 16

A Valentine For Her

The pretty new first-grade teacher, Mrs. Schlinker, was most thoughtful in sending home a printed list of all boys and girls in her class. I counted 37 names for the first-grade. What a lovely party they will have with her on Friday. (As will all the classes, of course! Valentine Day used to be one of my very favorite school days.)

OFFICERS ELECTED BY HOMEOWNERS ASSO'

At their second meeting, the Country Club Hills Homeowners Assoc. nominated and voted by secret ballot for their four officers. pres. Stanley Sylwestrak vice president, John McCormick 4420 West 182nd Pl.; secretary, Wesley Zimmermann, 4538 West 179th, and treasurer, Jim Langan, 18102 Maryann lane.

Temporary chairman C. W. Leek, turned over the meeting to the new president, and the group next decided to have its third meeting in three weeks, at which the subject before them will be by-laws as recommended by a committee headed by the vice president.

Advising attorney, George Brogan, of 17871 Baker ave., will work with this committee closely and attend the next meeting to aid in presentation of recommended by laws and any amendments so desired by the membership of 24 persons.

Remember to call your blocks elected delegates and inform them of any suggestions you may have concerning ways of improving the physical appearance, safety, and planning of our community. (As an elected delegate myself, I have a printed list of all members' addresses and phone numbers and will be glad to give them to you.)

Hazel Was Hostess

Bill and Hazel Ramseyer were hosts for the regular meeting of the Christian Church's executive committee in their home at 18210 Anthony, Wednesday, February 12.

Children's Hearts

Andrew J. Tobin, principal of Coopers Grove school has ordered 220 cards from the National Heart fund. Each child in school will receive a card, decorated with small hearts containing coin slots. This will remind their parents of the Heart Fund's collection day on Sunday, Feb. 23 and also allow each child to offer their own small contribution to a worthy cause.

On the evening of Feb. 3 the Loran Nordgens were hosts to the Social Fund Raising subcommittee (of the Citizens committee), for Coopers Grove school district. At this meeting Bill Hastings was elected chairman of this group.

Mother Club Plans

The February meeting of the Mothers club completed plans for their Feb. 15 bake sale. Flyers will be sent to parents announcing this.

The annual dinner of the Mothers club will be held March 20 at the Green Shingie restaurant nearby.

The club also carried forward planning for their large Fun fair to be held May 25. The mothers ask all neighbors in school district 160 to donate whatever white elephant objects they have around the house, or any extra canned goods, or fresh baked goods for selling at the fair.

If you wish to offer any of these, call the club's president, Lillian Thomas, SY 8-6728.

The monthly prize was awarded to Martha Shank. Hostesses, who served a Bohemian stuffed cookie which delighted the ladies present, were: Bette Creighton, Pat Hastings, and Jo Manypenny.

Church School Staff

Country Club Hills Christian church has for many months handled a large and ever growing number of young children in their church school classes.

Teachers are: 5th grade and up, Joyce Olson; 4th grade, Jim Ramser; 3rd grade, Evelyn Van Horn; 2nd grade, Clare Jirik; 1st grade, Bonnie Campbell; kindergarten, Dollye Nordgren; 3 year olds, Mrs. Nelson, 2 year olds, Darlene Berdan.

Baby care has been alternated in the homes of Hazel Ramseyer, Mrs. Dieckmann, and Mrs. Myers.

Jim Ramser is welcomed by the staff as their newest member. He lives at 17851 Anthony and was superintendent of the Junior department in his previous church before moving here.

That's all til next week. My mailing address is: 17925 John ave.

MAY YOU FARE WELL

THE BREMEN BEAT

By EDWIN BRUELL

"The broad purpose of the studies in mathematic at Bremen community high school is to serve the students by fitting them into what they are best capable of doing, taking full account of their individual differences and ambitions, according to Mrs. Hilda Hemphill, chairman of the mathematics department.

Bremen offers a "two-track program" with two years of general mathematics as an elective designed to give the students a knowledge of practical application of mathematics in everyday life. These courses cover such needed subjects as insurance and taxation as well as an exploratory survey into geometry and algebra. A carefully planned program of guidance beginning in the eighth grade is used to help place students in the courses in which they will be most proficient. At Bremen the students' work is also watchfully observed so that, if they do well in general mathematics, it is often recommended that they take the whole sequence in mathematics.

The college preparatory program consists of Algebra I in the freshman year, plane geometry in the sophomore terms, a semester of solid geometry the semester of Algebra II and a third year, culminating, in the fourth year, with a half year of college algebra followed by a half year of trigonometry.

The textbook used at Bremen is the same one used at many leading educational institutions such as the Illinois Institute of Technology and Carnegie Technical Institute. Mrs. Hemphill pointed out that the Bremen faculty has chosen the material suitable for high school students and that supplementary textbooks are also employed to enrich the course.

We make every effort to acquaint ourselves with the needs of universities and of technical schools, so that we may direct instruction not only toward the theoretical but also toward the practical needs of the students," she said.

She declared that attention is centered on all the students with the caution that no student should set his sights unrealistically far beyond his potentiality. The idea is uppermost at Bremen that it is valuable for everyone to learn to like, appreciate, and enjoy mathematics the same as is generally considered possible in the area of literature.

Bremen students who take the advanced courses show their enthusiasm, according to Mrs. Hemphill; and those enrolled in all the mathematics courses benefit by learning what those who become specialists in mathematics are doing.

What of the current emphasis on mathematics?

The present-day emphasis on mathematics is certainly important and is being considered so at Bremen, according to the department chairman. She added that the reorganization of mathematics programs in the schools throughout the land is strictly in the experimental stage with no uniform national pattern for advanced mathematics courses.

Other Bremen mathematics teachers, besides the chairman, who teaches Mathematics III and Mathematics IV, are Robert DuBois, geometry, algebra, and General Mathematics II; Raymond McCoy, General Mathematics II, geometry, and Mathematics I; William Brown, Mathematics I and algebra; Mrs. Mary Lou Moore, algebra and Mathematics I; and Thomas Zalewski, Mathematics II, algebra, and geometry.

Ad Man to Speak

James Gilman, advertising executive, will speak to the journalism class of Bremen Friday, Feb. 20, at 2:45 p.m. in Room 136 on "The Makings of a Journalist" (What It Takes to Be One.)

His talk will be followed by a question and answer period, at which time members of the class, composed of seniors, may ask pertinent questions.

Gilman has had many years of experience in the field of practical journalism. His daughter, Jennifer, is editor of the BREMEN ECHO, school newspaper.

Music Department

One of the benefits of the music program is that it gives the students valuable experience in groups while they work together as a team, according to Paul Scharfenberg, chairman of the music department at Bremen high school, who added that it takes as much teamwork to participate in a music group as on an athletic team.

He also stressed the carry-over value of music, noting that, "we hope to reach students enough through music that they can gain pleasure, and relief from the cares of the world. We want them to do any enjoy—to play and to listen."

Asked if there is any preventive value toward juvenile delinquency in a study of music, Scharfenberg answered, "The time spent practicing on an instrument surely would keep the student well occupied and less apt to spend time on things which would contribute to juvenile delinquency.

In the instrumental division at Bremen the freshman student may take beginning band. It is preferred that he have some musical training along the way, such as a piano background or the tonette. However innate musical ability is a satisfactory substitute.

The next requirement, according to the department chairman is the "determination, will, and desire to do something musical. Music is as exacting as any other course."

If the student is good enough at once, but usually after a stint in the beginning band, he is eligible to join the varsity band.

Then the real fun begins, for the band marches at football games and plays at such occasions and at basketball contests. Also during the year there are various other gala public performances such as concert sometimes in conjunction with the chorus, as in the spring and Christmas concerts. Also the Bremen band, with red and white uniforms, is seen performing at the Oak Forest parade on "I Am An America Day" and at the Midlothian and Markham Memorial Day services.

Choral offerings at Bremen taught by Ruth Schmidt, at the freshmen girls' chorus, the beginners' mixed chorus, the advanced girls' chorus and the advanced mixed chorus.

Many an evening after school Bremen musicians are seen and heard—rehearsing. For instance, the mixed octet, from the advanced mixed chorus, the girls' sextet, from the advanced girls' chorus, may be working out some tricky numbers; or there may be a section rehearsal such as a clarinet quartet.

What about the rigors of practicing, vaguely remembered as a childhood chore?

"The amount of practice time depends on the individual, but a student should practice at least an hour a day," Scharfenberg commented, adding that it is very helpful when parents encourage their children to practice faithfully for musical attainment.

"We are trying to give our students a well-balanced, varied approach to music, not necessarily in trying to make them professional musicians but wanting them to enjoy a better type of music—to become participants in performing and in supporting the cause of good music."

WHAT HAPPENED TO SCHOOLROOM CRISIS?

The proposal that the federal government underwrite scientific education is running into strong opposition—and some of it comes from top educators. They see federal aid as an open invitation to ultimate federal control of education. They want to get the needed money from industry, foundations and individuals.

The situation caused the Wall Street Journal to make an apt observation: "This year we are told that unless Washington spends $1 billion more on science education we will never catch up to the Russian Sputniks and education is doomed." "Last year we were told that unless the Federal Government came across with billions of dollars to build schoolrooms across the country education was doomed. But hardly anybody mentions that these days. "Is it fair to ask the Federal Government what happened to the schoolroom crisis?"

Those who want the federal government to become a dictator of education will use any excuse to get their foot in the door. That is happening now. It amounts to arguing that we must ape the Russians in order to keep pace with the Russians. That is true, free and representative government is dead. One of the great paradoxes of this age is that we could destroy ourselves from within even as we gird mightily to ward against attack from without.

ON SCHEDULE

Construction of Brownlee Dam in Idaho is proceeding on schedule. The huge project is now in the homestretch, and the first of its four 90,100-kilowatt generating units is slated to spin into action by October, 1958. All of the units will be on the line by December, 1958, producing needed kilowatts for the power hungry Pacific Northwest. Back of this lies a story—which makes Brownlee an important national symbol of what private enterprise can accomplish if given a chance. Brownlee is the first of a three-dam hydroelectric project being built by the Idaho Power Company on the Hell's Canyon reach of the Snake River. The Hell's Canyon fight, all readers of the news will remember, went on for years. Proponents of socialized development. But Congress refused, session after session, to appropriate the taxpayers' money for this purpose when private capital was ready to do the job.

The Federal Power Commission, after a year of exhaustive inquiries, in which all sides were heard, approved the Idaho Power plan. And the FPC's action was upheld in the courts, including the Supreme Court.

So—after long and unnecessary delay—Idaho Power went ahead. The three-dam development will produce a total of 1,175,000 kilowatts—and that will be a life-saver, for the region has been in intense danger of suffering a major power shortage, due in large part to the efforts of "the blockaders" who went down the line to try to stop private development. The cost of the three-dam development, along with new transmission lines and related facilities, will come to about $160,000,000. On top of that, the development will ultimately yield $10,000,000 a year in federal, state and local taxes.

To repeat, construction of Brownlee Dam is proceeding on schedule. And that will be true of needed power projects everywhere if taxpaying private enterprise is not strangled by costly socialistic pressure in Congress and state legislatures.

Letters to the Editor

Editor:
I note with much interest in your issue of Feb. 6th, it looks to me as if our village fathers are taking us taxpayers for a ride. Please advise me if I am in error. If the newly appointed engineers estimate our sanitary job for one million dollars, they shall be paid 4.75% or $47,500 but if the engineers come up with an estimate of two million dollars and the job cost only one million dollars, then they shall receive 4.75% or $95,000. Now are we so dumb as to think the Engineers come up with a smaller amount and lose $47,500.00?

I have been informed, Pace Associates (village engineers for the past two years) are very capable Engineers, as a matter of fact they were rated top in 1956 according to the Engineers Magazine. Why cannot they handle this job, why do our village fathers have to reach out into the unknown?

Now, may I ask what part and how many tax dollars will Benjamin & Lang receive as fiscal agents or financial advisers? If my memory serves me correctly Benjamin & Lang was vetoed from the same category only a few years ago as excess baggage on tax payers.

Pray tell me just how our village fathers can assure Benjamin & Lang the bonds at 4.75% obligation and 5.58% sewer revenue eight months before an estimate is made, and a referendum is called. Do not these bonds call for sealed bids to be awarded to the lowest bidder at a public meeting of our village board after a referendum?

Wake up Mr. and Mrs. Tax Payer, and see if your village board is working for your best interest. Let us get your view point.

RICH GO-GETTERS

The cocktail party to be held Feb. 28, was discussed by the Rich Go-Getters 4H club at the meeting Feb. 4, in the home of Sharon Kohl.

The party will be held in the home of Sharon Kohl at 7:30 p. m. Serving on the refreshment committee with her are Lyla Harms and Carol Schmaedeke. The entertainment will be provided by Sharon.

The type of display in the contest for National 4H club week March 3-8, was decided. It will be placed in the Woolworth store, Chicago Heights. Lyla Harms, Elaine Elbers, and Sandra Gierke are on the committee.

At the next meeting of the Rich Go-Getters Lois Blume will give a talk and Carol Schmaedeke will give a demonstration, to be held March 4, in the latter's home.

Refreshments were served by Sharon Kohl after the meeting. Anyone wishing to join the club may contact Sharon Kohl or Elaine Elbers, junior leaders.

RICH BREMEN 4-H

The Rich Bremen 4-H met Jan 31 in the Farm Bureau hall, at which time talks were given by Milton Blume on bee diseases, and Richard Blume on planting a garden.

Beef breeds were discussed, as was the possibility of having a one-day fair. W. F. Whiteside's letter regarding a window display was read by president Dale Tweitmeyer. Mel Hoyer, one of the leaders, stressed the importance of keeping good book records.

Henry and Richard Bohlman served refreshments.

The next meeting will be Feb. 28 at the Farm Bureau hall.

Eagles Hang On In Title Race

Wallop Rams 64-44 To Keep on Heels of Pace Making Braves

The Carl Sandburg Eagles continued hot on Bremen's trail for the Southwest Suburban conference championship as they trounced the Reavis Rams on Friday night by a score of 64-44 as Bremen defeated Oak Lawn. Bremen remains to top of the standings in the Southwest Suburban Conference with a record of eight victories and one defeat with Sandburg in second place with seven victories and two defeats.

In Friday's victory over the Rams, Sandburg shot almost 50% as they scored on 25 field goal attempts in 53 attempts while Reavis could muster only 15 field goals on 45 shots. Little Pat Ford led Sandburg's scoring with 25 points and once again Mark Hill led all rebounders as he cleared 16 rebounds from the boards. By halftime Sandburg had built up a 26-13 lead and was using substitutes. The Rams were never in the ball game following the opening minutes of the game.

On Saturday night it was a different story. The Eagles journeyed to Aurora to take on the powerful Marmion Military academy ranked 13th in the state in prep basketball polls. Sandburg got off to a slow start and trailed at the end of the first quarter by a score of 20-10 but came back with a terrific second quarter in which they outscored Marmion by 23-13 to tie at half time 33-33. However, Marmion blistered the nets in the second half as they shot almost 75% to outscore Sandburg 49-18 and post an 82-52 win.

Little Pat Ford once again led Sandburg scorers as he posted 28 points. Sharpener of Marmion led the Cadets scoring with 23 points and received able assistance from the other four starters who all scored in double figures.

Carl Sandburg continues the chase of Bremen for conference honors when they engage Lincoln-Way on the Sandburg court on Friday night in the next to the last home-game. On Saturday night, Sandburg journeys outside the conference to engage Minooka at Minooka.

Church Stars, Methodists to Play Monday

The Tinley Park Church league All-Star basketball game will be played Monday evening Feb. 17 in the Central school gymnasium. The first place Methodist church team will be pitted against the selected stars of the 1957-58 season. The game will begin at 8:00 p.m.

Bob Mason, coach of the St. George Catholic team and Jerry Hug, Teen Club coach, will be in charge of the All-Star team. The starting All-Star line-up will be made up of Ron Gallina, St. George's and Bruce Ralson, Teen Club at forwards. The Rev. Dallas Mucci will start at center with Gary Bressi, of the Nazarene team, at guard. The other guard will be either Wally Eggert or Tom Mortenson of the Teen club.

The Methodists starting line-up probably will be Jim Hon and Lloyd Sundblad, forwards, Elmer Ginther, center, and Tom Jeffers and Ken Webster, at the guard positions. The Methodist team will enter the game with a 10-2 record, but will be facing its toughest competition of the season.

The doors will open at 7:15 p.m. at which time fans may enter the bleachers. Donations will be accepted at the door.

Tinley Park Grade School Basketeers Lose to Blue Island

The Tinley Park grade school light and heavyweight basketball teams lost to Blue Island Junior High teams last week at Tinley.

The heavies lost 34-21 and the lights 26-15.

Bob Thomas was high scorer for the Tinley heavies with 12 points.

After leading by only three points at half-time, 10-7, the Blue Island lights outscored Tinley Park 16-8 in the second half, for a 26-15 win.

L-W Loses To Rich, Splits With Peotone

By FRED KIESLAR
The Knights of Lincoln-Way had a bad time—basketball-wise—the past week-end. The varsity lost games to Rich and Peotone. The frosh-sophs lost to Rich but trounced Peotone.

The losses to Rich—a Southwest Suburban conference foe—were by wide margins, the L-W varsity being on the short end of a 70-33 count while the frosh-sophs took it on the chin to the tune of 62-25.

The Peotone-Lincoln-Way varsity battle Saturday night wound up 48-47 in favor of the Blue Devils, on a basket in the last second.

The frosh-soph game had a happier ending for Lincoln-Way. The Lincoln five had the same score as the varsity, 47, but the Peotones finished with 32.

The game against the Rockets was played at Rich and the latter team, stung by a series of recent defeats, took off with the vigor that characterized Rich teams of former years and layed up baskets with sickening regularity.

The Rockets ace, Bill Wagner, was high point man with 16. Henry Jessen counted 10 for Lincoln-Way and Bill Dusek was next with eight.

In the frosh-soph contest the high scorer was Bill Merrill, of Rich, with 17 points. Tom Peterson's eight were high for L-W.

The varsity tilt with Peotone was a thriller. The Blue Devils led 12 to 11 at the end of the first quarter but in the second period the Knights racked up 21 points to Peotone's 9 to lead 32-21 at the half.

The end of the third frame saw the Knights still in front but the narrowest of margins, 37-36. The fourth quarter saw the two teams trading baskets and with six seconds of playing time remaining the score stood at 47-46, Lincoln-Way.

Peotone called for time out. When play resumed the Devils passed in from center court. A pass was flipped to Ron Mundt, in the corner. Mundt let fly and the final horn sounded while the ball was in the air. It swished thru the netting and that was that.

Jessen was high man for the Knights with 16 points, Lee Yunker next with 13. The game-winning Mundt was top scorer for the game with 20 points.

In the frosh-soph game Peotone led 9 to 8 at the close of the first period but at half-time the Lincolns had drawn ahead, 22 to 19 and increased their lead to seven at the end of the third quarter. In the last frame the Lincolns counted 12 tallies to Peotone's four to win by 15 points, 47-32.

Tomorrow night the Knights will travel to Orland Park to take on the Carl Sandburg powerhouse. Two more regular season games will follow and then the time will arrive for Lincoln-Way to meet Joliet Catholic high again—this time in the state district tournament at Joliet.

Lions, L-W Faculty Meet in Cage Tilt to Benefit School

The annual basketball game—at least they use baskets and a ball—between a team drawn from the Lions club membership in Manhattan, New Lenox, Frankfort and Mokena one made up of male members of the Lincoln-Way high school faculty is to be played Saturday night, Feb. 15, in the Lincoln-Way gymnasium.

In addition to this event there is to be a hurry-up cage tournament involving five grade school teams, St. Mary's and the public school of Mokena, Frankfort, New Lenox and Manhattan. The winner is to receive a trophy that can be retained permanently if won three times.

The grade school teams are expected to complete their part of the program by 8:15. Then comes the Lions-Faculty fandango.

The Lions and the teachers may not play so good, it was admitted, but in the past their contests have been colorful and entertaining for the cash customers.

Cash customers are needed, it was pointed out because cash is required to build three modern, black-topped tennis courts at the school, with drains and backstops. It is the Lions aim to build these courts. They are not to be restricted to tennis, however, but can be used for basketball, volleyball, badminton and other purposes.

For instance, they would be flooded in the winter and converted to ice rinks.

The money raised at the game will be turned into the tennis court fund and it is the hope of those backing the program that it can be carried out by 1959.

The Lions are organized as a special body in its Lincoln-Way promotion activities, known as Lions of Lincoln-Way, Inc. Officers are C. L. Klasing, New Lenox, president; John Hartnell, Manhattan, vice president and Frank Goetschel, New Lenox, secretary-treasurer.

Tips on Traffic Safety

Oddly enough, many parents continue to allow their children to stand on the seat while their vehicle is in action. Apparently they are completely unaware of the risks involved in allowing children to do this.

A motorist can never tell when a sudden stop will have to be made. Such a stop could cause a child to strike his head against the dashboard or to fall to the floor. Needless to say, a serious injury could result from such an incident.

In this day, when more and more drivers are turning to safety belts for their own safety as well as for the safety of passengers in their vehicles, it is difficult to imagine other motorists allowing children to stand in an auto while it is in motion.

A copy of the completely new "Rules of the Road" booklet will be sent to you free upon request. Write to CHARLES F. CARPENTIER, Secretary of State, Springfield, Illinois.

Mokena Downs N. Lenox; Stays in Title Race

Mokena's Meteors scored their second hair-raising victory within four days when they turned back New Lenox Friday night 35 to 34. The victory scored at home was as equally sweet as the upset of Rockdale Tuesday 35 to 33.

The victory over arch rival New Lenox was a pressure-packed win since any loss at this stage of the race would be disastrous to the title hopes of Mokena. Three games remain on the conference schedule: Friday Mokena travels to Troy, on Feb. 21 entertains Laraway, and on Feb. 28 ends the season at Manhattan. Rockdale and Channahon remain tied for first place with one loss apiece while Mokena and Laraway have each lost twice.

The Meteors began Friday's game as tho it was to be as easy a triumph as was scored earlier in the season at New Lenox when Mokena won by 12 points. The first quarter found Johnson and Williams each scoring two baskets. Yunker a basket and free throw, Muehler a basket and Arnold two free throws. The best New Lenox could do was five free throws by Reinhard and a basket and free throw by Jessen. The period ended with the Meteors ahead 15 to 8.

The Meteors' attack began to fall off slightly in the second quarter but they still managed to outscore New Lenox 10 to 9. Muehler contributed 5 of the 10 points scored, while Yunker and Johnson each had a basket and Arnold a free throw. New Lenox got two baskets from Jessen and one each from Osborne and Summers. Reinhard contributed his 6th free throw of the evening. The half ended with Mokena on top 25 to 17.

The third period was a decided drop in the scoring of both teams but Mokena still managed to add one point to their lead by outscoring their rivals 6 to 5. Yunker's two baskets and William's one accounted for the points. Reinhard added his 7th and 8th free throws of the night and also his first basket. Jessen got a free throw.

The fourth period opened with the Meteors ahead by 9 points, 31 to 22. Baskets by Chesko, Jessen, and Fredin cut the lead to 31-28 half way thru the quarter. Muehler met the challenge with a bucket from the side but a basket by Reinhard made the score 33 to 30. Muehler again came thru with a driving basket to move the score to 35-30. That proved to be the winning basket because Jessen got clear for two baskets in the last two minutes to bring the score to 35 to 34.

The Meteorites lost to New Lenox in the curtain-raiser by a score of 31 to 23. The game was the best played by Mokena this year. New Lenox has beaten the Mokena ponies 35 to 8 in the opening game of the year. Mokena led in a slow first quarter 2 to 1. The half saw New Lenox leave the floor ahead 14 to 12. By the end of the third period Mokena had cut the margin to 22-21. The crowd sensed an upset but it was not to be as the Meteorites ran out of gas and could score only two points in the last period as against nine for New Lenox.

Methodists Nose Out Georges 58-57 In 2 Overtimes to Clinch Title

Tinley Park Church League Standings

	W	L
Methodist	10	2
Nazarene	5	7
Tinley Teens	5	7
St. George	4	8

The Methodists clinched the Tinley Park Church League basketball title with a double over-time win over the St. George five, 58-57. Elmer Gintner's tip-in shot proved to be the deciding margin. The Tinley Teens broke open the fight for second place by defeating the Nazarenes in overtime, 37-34.

In a game closely contested thru its duration, the champion Methodists finally subdued the last place Catholics and Ron Gallina. The largest lead enjoyed by the Methodists was five points.

Ron Gallina, league's leading scorer, was high for the night with 22 points. Ken Webster had 17 points.

In a strong second half the Tinley Teens pulled into a second place tie with the Nazarenes. Two weeks ago the Teens defeated the Methodists and since then haven't lost.

Gary Bressi, of the Nazarenes, and Tom Mortensen, of the Teens, were tied for top scoring laurels with 13 apiece.

Bremen Braves Beat Evergreen Five 53-45 to Hold Conference Lead

The Bremen Braves moved another step closer to the southwest conference title when they tripped Oak Lawn 53-45 Friday night on the latter's home court.

Oak Lawn opened fast with Niel McGhee scoring nine points to steer his teammates into a 15-8 lead at the end of the first quarter.

A basket at the start of the second quarter by Bremen's Gerry DuBois was equalized by McGhee, but Rich Tindall, of Bremen, came thru with a set shot and Dale Hartwig followed with a free throw to cut the Oak Lawn lead to four points.

Bremen's balanced scoring found the hoop to lead at half time 22-21.

Bremen added 13 points in the third quarter to Oak Lawn's 11 to increase the bulge to three points.

Oak Lawn Stalls

Oak Lawn employed stalling tactics in the fourth quarter, but interruptions by O'Neil and DuBois, coupled with Luke Smith's seven points gave the Braves an eight point winner as the game ended.

Oak Lawn's McGhee led the Bremen's Hartwig and Smith scoring with 17 points, while tallied 16 and 13 respectively.

Bremen's frosh-soph scored an impressive victory 60-50 in the curtain raiser.

The Braves play host to Evergreen Park Friday. Game time is 6:45 p.m.

Knater Begins Primary Battle For Sheriff

Gilbert A. Knater, a veteran law enforcement officer with some 30 years of experience, who has been a lifelong Will county resident, will soon embark on an intensive campaign for the Republican nomination for sheriff in the April 8, primaries.

Knater holds the distinction of being the only candidate in the sheriff's race with previous law enforcement experience, having served as a state policeman and chief deputy sheriff under the late James (Jimmy) O'Neil.

Gilbert Knater

As a commanding officer of Joliet's District 5 of the Illinois State Highway police, Knater directed police activities in Will, Grundy, Kendall and La Salle counties. He recently resigned as lieutenant of the Illinois state highway police to enter the sheriff's race.

Republican forces in every section of Will county have volunteered their support of Knater in the forthcoming primaries. He also has pledged the support of many groups and organizations, labor included.

Lived at Frankfort
Born 52 years ago in Joliet, Knater was one of eight children born to the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter Knater. While he was a young boy his family moved to Manhattan and then to Frankfort.

Completing his schooling, Knater first worked for his father, but later decided on a career in law enforcement.

His first assignment was that as a conservation officer for the state. A few months later, however, he was given an appointment on the state police department but was replaced by a Democrat when Henry Horner became governor.

The accompanist is Tom Olson. There are 660 participants from 207 Illinois High schools entered in the contest.

Knater served as a security officer for two years with a Joliet business concern and when James O'Neil was elected sheriff he picked Knater as his chief deputy because of his fine police record.

Knater returned to the state police department in 1942 when Dwight H. Green became governor. The following year he was named a sergeant on the department.

Although Knater has been a staunch Republican all his life, it was under Gov. Adlai Stevenson's administration that he was promoted to the rank of lieutenant in 1948.

A rugged six footer, Knater believes in strict law enforcement, but all who know him in sist he is fair and impartial. This being his first venture into politics, he is not regarded as an astute politician. Rather, he is a sincere policeman with a serious outlook and an honest handshake, according to his supporters.

Knater has the backing of most Will county Republican leaders who have chosen him their candidate because of his wealth of law enforcement experience.

Said one Republican leader: "Knater will make us a fine sheriff, not only because of his many years of police experience, but because he has other fine attributes. He is a man of honesty and integrity. Being a tireless worker, he will be an active sheriff, who will see that the job of protecting Will county is done properly."

For 19 years he was married to the former Evelyn Pfaff. She died two years ago. Knater now resides in Joliet.

A NEW PLAN FROM A NEW GENERAL OF AMERICA COMPANY

SAFECO is another of the famed General of America group—the organization which for over 30 years—for thousands of American property owners—has been

SAVING 15% ON FIRE INSURANCE

Thousands of careful drivers are no longer paying high insurance premiums that are caused to a great degree by the reckless motorist.

It's the biggest and best auto insurance news in years. Best of all, in addition to real dollar savings for you, it's the best protection you can buy. Here's why:

You're fully insured in a capital stock company—SAFECO is one of the famed General of America group.

You get fast, fair claims service because SAFECO claim service is GENERAL claim service. No matter where you may be on a trip in the U.S. or Canada, there's an experienced claims man to give you his personal service in the event of an accident.

SAFECO is sold only by professional insurance men—men who know insurance and whose first consideration is your complete protection. And with SAFECO it's "good-bye" to high insurance premiums.

Would you prefer semi-annual premiums—instead of the heavy rap of an annual payment? SAFECO's modern machine-billing method offers you this service at no premium upcharge.

How does this sound to you, Mr. Careful Driver? Why not write it down now—check SAFECO before you buy or renew your auto insurance.

The Bettenhausen Motor Sales, 17514 Oak Park ave., Tinley Park, was again burglarized. A frequent target of burglars, the place was entered again some time late Sunday or early Monday morning.

The loss in this most recent break-in amounts to between $600 and $700. Taken were expensive equipment and tools. A wanton act of vandalism was committed by the burglars by slashing tires on 18 cars and trucks.

Entry was made thru a rear window of the building.

FARM NEWS

For Cook County
by
W. F. Whiteside

assistant farm adviser

Don't forget the Soil Conservation District Annual meeting February 20, 7:00 pm., Tinley Park Methodist church.

If you have not yet selected your trees and shrubs for spring planting, do so now to avoid the spring rush, says H. R. Kemmerer, University of Illinois. Local nurseries are usually the best place to buy your plants. You can see the trees and shrubs actually growing, and not simply as pictures in a catalog. Plants carried by local nurseries are usually adapted to your locality. Nurserymen can help you make selections and can order plants for you that they don't have in stock. Nursery catalogs are helpful in selecting trees and shrubs. But don't let attractive pictures and descriptions sell you plants you don't need.

A landscape nurseryman will consult with you on your plant needs. After you select the trees and shrubs you want, he will buy and plant them when warm weather arrives. If you wait until spring to consult him, the chances are he'll be too busy to spend much time with you.

The size of trees and shrubs to buy depends mostly on how much money you want to spend. Seedlings and lining out stock are the least expensive. But they should be planted in a nursery a year or so before being put in the landscape setting. Otherwise they'll be stepped on, choked by weeds or cut by the lawn mower.

Medium sized trees are moderately priced and large enough to see when planted. Evergreens in this size group are about two feet tall, shrubs three to four feet, and trees eight to ten feet tall. They will need several years' growth before they will complete the landscape setting.

Incidentally, Mr. Kemmerer will be in the county for a meeting March 4, 7:30 pm. at the Tinley Park Farm Bureau bldg.

Illinois farmers made an estimated profit of almost $2.7 million by treating their crops with insecticides during 1957.

H. B. Petty, entomologist with the University of Illinois college of agriculture and the State Natural History Survey, made this report to the custom spray operators school on Friday. He bases this estimate on acres treated for major insects and yield increases obtained.

Your neighbors may be glad to see you plant a vegetable garden this spring even if you are only lukewarm about the idea. With a little luck, some good growing weather and a dozen tomato plants, for instance, you can produce bushels of ripe fruit for two or three months. With such a crop your neighbors are almost sure to benefit.

A good vegetable garden offers many assets to a family. It not only produces fresh, nutritious food, but also provides health and recreation to the gardener. Fresh vegetables direct from the garden are much higher in quality than those generally sold on the market. And they're available when you want them.

Trees that are fast growing and have other desirable characteristics include red oak, pin oak, thornless honey locust, tulip and sycamore. Equally fine trees—but slower in growth—in clude sugar maple, sweet gum,

Coast Guard Has New Program For Recruits

The United States Coast Guard has announced that the age limit for enlistment in its six-month reserve program has been raised to twenty one. Here tofore, men who had passed the age of 18½ were ineligible for enlistment in this program. Under the new policy men who have not reached their 21st birthday may be enlisted.

When enlisted in this program a man serves only six months on active duty. The balance of his military obligation is fulfilled by weekly attendance, one night a week, at an organized reserve unit near his home plus two weeks active duty training each summer. Men enlisted in this program are draft exempt provided they satisfactorily fulfill their reserve obligation. Upon completion of their reserve enlistment these men are no longer eligible for the draft.

Men 17 to 21, without dependents, who reside within a reasonable distance of a coast guard reserve unit, are eligible for enlistment in the six month program. Men between the ages of 17 and 18½ may have their active duty delayed up to 90 days and, in the case of men who are seniors in high school, the active duty will be delayed until after graduation. Men between the ages of 18½ and 21 are required to start their active duty within 30 days of enlistment.

Coast reserve units in the Chicago area are located at 500 West 36th street, Chicago; Forest Park, Evanston, and in Gary, Ind.

For full information on this and other programs offered by the Coast Guard, contact the Coast Guard recruiting station, 610 South Canal st., Chicago, Tel. WABash 2-6955.

Interceptor Sewer To Serve LaGrange W. Springs Area

(CNS)—The area south of La Grange and Western Springs will be served by a future extension of a $900,000 interceptor sewer the Metropolitan Sanitary District of Greater Chicago will build to serve Willow Springs and Justice. Contractors have been notified that bids are being accepted for the work.

The 2.4 mile line will run along the south bank of the main channel of the Sanitary and ship canal from 67th to 79th streets.

A future extension will serve the area south of LaGrange and Western Springs, said Anthony A. Olis, district president.

hackberry and ginkgo. Trees that are generally considered undesirable include cottonwood, Carolina poplar, soft maple, box elder, tree of heaven and Chinese elm.

The best time to transplant suggests Culver, is early spring—as soon as the soil can be worked without being muddy. Since larger trees are more susceptible to injury than smaller ones, they require greater care in moving. Always keep the roots moist.

Bargain Prices Mark Tinley Dollar Days Sale

Tinley Park merchants are co-operating in a special Dollar Days sale event for the benefit of area shoppers. The 3-day bargain spree will be held Thursday Feb. 20, Friday, Feb. 21 and Saturday, Feb. 22.

Merchants are busy cutting prices on quality merchandise to bring bargains galore to the community.

Items of wearing apparel, household goods, groceries, hard ware, sporting goods, and many others too numerous to mention await shoppers at low dollar prices.

Consumers will have an opportunity for the first time in Tinley Park to take advantage of the real Dollar Days values.

Budget minded shoppers will wish to stock up on many items of canned goods and staples. The number of items marked down to real value prices is as varied as the family needs.

The Dollar Days are being held to build goodwill and are designed to attract new customers to Tinley Park stores as well as to give outstanding buying opportunities to valued old customers.

Merchants are cutting prices with abandon to make the 3-day sale a memorable one.

Next week's issue of the Tinley Park Times and other Semmler newspapers will carry ads on all of the sales. Watch for them and plan to take advantage of the low prices set by local merchants.

Stores are open on Fridays until 9 pm.

Boy Scouts Hold Court of Honor

Boy Scout Troop 40 held a court of honor on Scout Sunday, Feb. 9, in the school gym, at Mokena, to present advancement awards and explain the new scouting program to the parents.

The following scouts received Tenderfoot badges: Mike Mansfield, George Demus, Billy Ihde, Ben Sluis, Paul Dath, David Howell, Dale Westlund, James Gorman and Mike Treibe. Paul Machalek was not present to receive his badge.

Second class badges were awarded to Lewis Akers, Ron Badten, Todd Bennett, Jim Davies and Wayne Swanberg. Nine merit badges were awarded in all. Robert Munch, Ken Lorenz, Dan Williams and Mark Muehler received public health, merit badges; Ken Lorenz and Robert Munch, rowing merit badges. Ken Lorenz also earned home repairs, M. B. and Robert Munch received canoeing and pioneering M. B.

One year service stars were awarded to Scouts Mansfield, Majher, Davies, Roberson, Heims, DeCamp, Swanberg, Akers, Selnik, Bill Sluis, Machalek Badten, Bennett, Jacobson, Muehler, Williams, Ray Lorenz. Explorers service stars to Ken Lorenz and Robert Munch; and Leaders service stars to Mr. Tanner and Mr. Omland.

Order of the Arrow (an order of honor campers) insignia was presented to Dan Williams and Mark Muehler.

A new troop charter and commissioned officers registration cards were presented to the troop committee by Paul Tipalski, the district executive.

The troop committee presented new registration cards to the scouts and explorers.

Robert Munch and Ken Lorenz took over, sending the scouts out on a treasure hunt they had prepared and planned

Lester Brown and Village Attorney William Penn.

Representing Frankfort were Burton Breidert, Adam Heusner, Walter Harnack and Scherrill Weichbrodt.

Most of the meeting was taken up with asking questions of the regional planning official.

The three communities desire to respect the rights of each other, it was pointed out at the meeting. For instance, none of them would want to put land to industrial use if it was next to a residential section of a neighbor.

All three communities face similar drainage problems and subdivisions raise more.

As the area grows more and more farm land will be given over to subdivisions. The planning groups are interested in arriving at some uniform practice of dealing with subdivisions.

Many communities now have ordinances requiring subdividers to put in sanitary and storm sewers, water mains, paved streets, curbs, gutters and sidewalks. Many communities also require subdividers to plant trees, banning certain varieties.

All three communities are without sewer systems and New Lenox also is without a central water supply. Frankfort and Mokena have water systems. Mokena has authorized a bond issue for a sewer system and barring further legal difficulties or other complications work on such is expected to begin this spring.

Frankfort voted down sewer bonds last year but is expected to hold another election.

The planning groups of the three communities expect to work out an agreement under which the commissions will hold a joint session at least once a year.

The Mokena commission is to meet next Wednesday night at the Carpenter street school. At that time they will discuss some of the questions taken up at Frankfort with the regional planner.

Sold 4,000 Tickets For Firemen's Ball At Tinley Park

The Tinley Park volunteer fire department express their gratitude to friends and neighbors of the community and other volunteers for their outstanding efforts in making the recent dance sponsored by the fire department a financial and social success.

This annual dance is the primary source of funds for maintaining the department so every contribution is greatly appreciated.

Henry Johnson, chairman of the dance, reports 1600 people attended the dance in the Tinley Park roller rink and 4,000 tickets were sold.

FFA Yonths Will Hold Cattle Auction At U. of I. Feb. 22

Boys and girls of the Future Farmers of America will hold a cattle auction on Feb. 22, at the University of Illinois. The auction will start at 11 a.m.

At the junior sale calves and purebred dairy cattle will go under the auctioneer's block.

Participating in the sale of cattle are Arthur Henke and Walter Lauffer, of Tinley Park.

Tractors that are not properly cared for in winter may wear more from occasional use in cold weather than from a full season of field work.

for the scouts to follow and find their reward at its end. In their absence, Tipalski, explained the new Scouting program to the parents. The scouts rejoined their parents, the meeting was closed and coffee was enjoyed by all.

Drives 115 MPH, Pays $100 Fine

The driver who burned up area highways at speeds exceeding 100 miles an hour last Sunday morning was fined $100 and costs by Justice of the Peace George Williams at Joliet Tuesday afternoon.

The speeder, 20-year-old Robert L. Froeming of Elmhurst, paid the fine and was released from the Will county jail where he had been confined since his arrest.

Froeming began his mad escapade south of Frankfort on U. S. 45. State troopers traveling south on 45 around 5 a. m. Sunday were startled to see a car passed them, headed north. The officers turned around and started in pursuit with sirens wailing and lights flashing. They clocked Froeming at 115 miles an hour, they said. At 143rd st., Froeming made a left turn and sped thru Orland Park at a dizzy pace.

At Wolf road, which is a stop for traffic on 143rd st., Froeming flashed thru the intersection without pause but fortunately no car was approaching on Wolf road.

In the meantime state troopers from the Blue Island district and Lockport police had been called in on the chase and it was a Lockport squad that finally nabbed him on 143rd st. in Will county. Froeming was delivered to the county jail and remained there until he paid his fine.

Barn Burns Down On Reiches Farm; 2nd Fire in Two Weeks

Fire destroyed the barn on a farm east of Frankfort Monday afternoon, making it the second time in two weeks buildings on the same farm had burned down.

A passerby reported the barn on fire at 3:40 p.m. to the Frankfort fire department, but the fire had gained such headway that firemen could only stand by and watch it burn.

The previous fire on Jan. 24, destroyed the farm home.

Located on the west side of Harlem ave., south of Sauk trail, the 80 acre farm has been unoccupied since the owner, Fred Reiches, died last spring. The estimate of loss on the barn is $4,000.

The cause of the fires has not been determined.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Behn entertained at dinner in their home Sunday, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Behn and son Clayton of Cicero and Mr. and Mrs. Julius Lanzer and children of DesPlaines. The occasion honored the birthday of Mrs. Harold Behn.

A daughter was born in Silver Cross hospital Sunday, Feb. 9 to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cupp, 222 Front St., Mokena. The baby weighed seven pounds three ounces and has been named Rita Carol. She and her mother are being welcomed home today by her sister, Rachael, 15-months-old.

The Women's Society of Christian Service will meet in the home of Mrs. Berle Needham this afternoon. Mrs. Harold Cooper will be in charge of the devotions and Mrs. William Roberts will present the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Howell have received word of the birth of a grandson, born to their son and wife, Airman 1-c and Mrs. Philip Howell Jan. 28, in Madrid, Spain. He weighed seven pound 15 ounces and has been named Allen David.

The next luncheon given for the Mokena school children, once a month, by the Evening circle of the WSCS, will be held next Wednesday, Feb. 19 in the dining room of the Methodist church starting at 11:30 a. m. There will be another serving at 12:30 for any adult who would like to get a quick lunch. The menu will consist of beef Bar-B-Que, potato chips, orange drink and cup cakes.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Duncan returned last Tuesday from Englewood, Fla., where they spent six weeks vacation. They state they "came home to get warm."

While Sr. and Mrs. W. J. Marshall of Chicago are vacationing for two weeks in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Martie are caring for their children, Jimmy 2½ years old and John 8 months.

The National Securities & Research Corporation has been above average in the accuracy of their annual forecasts for business and earnings.

For 1958, this firm's forecast is: "Easier money conditions and record levels of personal income, construction outlays and consumer expenditures, as estimated, should form the basis for a relatively high level of business activity in 1958."

"Higher wage rates will in our opinion tend to be offset by operating efficiencies obtained by new equipment and by selective adjustments in selling prices. Total corporate profits are expected to decline in 1958 and considerable variation in the earnings of individual companies should be anticipated. Dividends will, in our opinion, hold at a relatively high level."

"We believe that higher average prices and lower yields are likely in the high grade bond and preferred markets in 1958. The opportunity to participate in the long term growth of successful American corporations through commitments in selected common stocks will, in our opinion, continue to receive full recognition by investors."

Of 65 leading industrials, this research organization lists 19 which are expected to show earnings in 1958 which are less than 1957, but 46 of this list are expected to show the same or better earnings per share of common stock, than 1957 showing.

These 46 firms are Allied Chemical & Dye, Allied Stores, American Airlines, American Can, American Cyanamid, American Radiator, American Tobacco, American Viscose, Armco Steel, C.I.T. Financial, Container Corporation, Dupont, Eastman Kodak, Firestone Tire and Rubber, General Dynamics, General Electric Company, General Foods, General Motors, Goodyear Tire & Rubber, International Business Machines, Johns Manville Co., Libby Owens Ford Glass, Lone Star Cement, R. H. Macy Co., Minneapolis Honeywell Regulator, Motorola, Inc., National Dairy, Parke Davis & Co., J. C. Penny Co., Phillips

Petroleum, Proctor & Gamble, Radio Corporation, Sears Roebuck, Shell Oil, Sinclair Oil, Standard Oil of New Jersey, J. P. Stevens Co., Texas Company, Union Bag, Union Carbide, United Aircraft, U. S. Gypsum, Westinghouse Electric and F. W. Woolworth.

It should be remembered that most common stocks are now being quoted at prices which are on a lower price-earnings ratio than a year ago with better dividend yield to the investor.

The Fitch Investment Survey for 1958, make a particular emphasis on the development of the natural gas industry. They believe that this industry's revenues will have advanced to about $7 billion or a 68 per cent increase over current figures. They point out that this figure does not take into consideration the wider acceptance of gas for air-conditioning.

The Fitch Survey specifically notes Arkansas Louisiana Gas, El Paso Natural Gas, Peoples Gas Light & Coke, and Texas Eastern Transmission, as being particularly attractive. Poor's Investment Advisory Survey calls attention to Lone Star Gas as being attractive in this group.

It should be kept in mind, in any investment program, that it would seem certain that the value of the dollar will fall further. All signs point to a considerably stepped up government spending program and a demand for higher pay and benefits by labor leaders.

Name Chairman For June Dairy Month Promotion

Kent M. Ryan, Hampshire, has been selected as June Dairy month chairman for Illinois for 1958. Elwood Howell, president of American Dairy Association of Illinois, announced the appointment.

The June dairy month promotion this year includes a combination of television and news papers; Perry Como TV show on National Broadcasting Company network; four color newspaper select ads in metropolitan markets; full page black and white ads and smaller black and white ads in many more newspapers; an industry-wide blanket of releases to newspapers, radio and television stations, trade magazines, and all media; and news and recipe information to every interested party, with pictures and mats.

The American Dairy association office at Joliet will again be headquarters for the June is Dairy Month promotion in Illinois.

Howell said, "Mr. Ryan has done an excellent job as promotional manager for the Northern Illinois Breeding Co-op. We know that with the support of the entire dairy industry, he can do an outstanding job as chairman of the June dairy month promotion."

Mr. Ryan has been active in dairying from high honors in 4H and FFA to a BS from the University of Illinois. Following this he was on the dairy extension staff for several years. Then he established a successful dairy cattle sales business. He left that to join Northern Illinois Breeding Co-op

Mr. Ryan is married and lives with his wife and four children at Hampshire. The name Ryan is familiar to Illinois dairymen since his father, O. H. Ryan, is past president of ADA of Illinois and president of Illinois Milk Producers Association.

LITTLE BILL says:

6¢ a load
is all you pay — to dry the clean
electric way

An electric dryer does all this for just 6¢: 3 big bath towels, 6 hand towels, 2 sheets, 2 pairs shorts, 2 T-shirts, 5 pairs of socks, 3 pillowcases, 2 men's shirts. This average 8-lb. load will take only 25 to 30 minutes.

Nothing's faster, nothing's cleaner—and electric dryers are completely automatic

COST?

ELECTRIC DRYERS

cost
$30 to $60 less to buy
than any other kind

Just 6¢ to dry an 8-lb. load of clothes the electric way. And the electric way is the completely automatic way. No igniting devices to get out of order.

Clothes dried in an electric dryer have the good fresh smell of all outdoors, too. Electric heat is radiant heat... like the sun. Clean and dry... with no combustion odors to mix with the clothes.

Electric dryers are fast. You can dry a whole load of cottons in just 25 to 30 minutes. And all the "no-vent" dryers are electric. Your laundry stays clean, dry and comfortable, makes venting unnecessary.

You'll be amazed when your electric appliance dealer tells you how little it costs to own an electric dryer. Why not see about it soon?

For many months we have followed the activities of our neighboring communities in the Tinley Park area through their columns in this paper. We have especially enjoyed the writings from Country Club Hills and we feel we know their community better because of the column. That is our intention also, so here we go!

Kimberly Heights had only a handful of homes 18 months ago, and now we are 81 families strong. Our growth has been normal of the communities in the southwest during the past years, and there seems to be nothing but progress and success ahead for all of our areas in the future.

Some interesting features of our community are the large half acre lots, and the lack of any buildings which are not connected to the homes. The homes for the most part are built on rolling sites that comprise some of the highest land in Cook county. The views from the many picture windows are looking out onto beautiful country landscape.

Know Your Neighbors

Under this heading each week there will appear a brief history of one of the families in Kimberly Heights. It is our intention to start with the John Walsh family, our newly elected president of the Home Owners association. In the following weeks our interviews will include the Harold Rennpags, the Julian Blanch's, and the John Witte's. That will present the officers of the association to you, and during the following weeks other members will be presented.

Home Owners' Association

Under this heading the news and activities of our only organized group will appear. It is our intention to assist them in their efforts by giving their meetings and other desires ample publicity.

We hope that there will be other headings appearing in the future such as: Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Social Clubs etc. It is also imperative for our success that we receive news from all of our neighbors, so there are two volunteers who have agreed to accept your news items. These reporters can be reached by calling Kellogg 2-4810, or Kellogg 2-2083.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tyroft entertained Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Leavitt of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. William Palya of Tinley Park and George Roelick of Marquette, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Baker entertained as their guests Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stoltz of Markham and on Sunday their guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. Daniels, also of Markham.

Mrs. August Trybul of Crivitz, Wis., was a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Hartman recently.

Mrs. Jay Werdebaugh of 17752 S. 66th ct., who had returned home following hospitalization, had a relapse which necessitated her return again to the Hazelcrest hospital.

Mrs. Elroy Marbach is visiting her parents in Southern Illinois.

Attends Bible Conference

The Rev. and Mrs. Richard Kirkland have returned from the midwinter conference at Minnesota Bible college in Minneapolis.

This being the 45th anniversary of the school, the registration of 600 former graduates brought a fine average attendance to the sessions. Special music was provided by the King's Choristers choir of the Bible college.

The Rev. Mr. Kirkland is pastor of Tinley Park Church of Christ.

Miss Judie Andres, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Andres, has won the Betty Crocker Homemaking award of the senior homemaking classes at the Rich township high school in Park Forest.

MARLEY

Mrs. Virginia Sass
New Lenox 3133

The Marley Missionary society will meet Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 19 at 1:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Francis Nelson. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Richard Been, Mrs. Ellen Nelson, Mrs. Roy Walker and Mrs. Royal Corp. Love gift boxes will be received at this meeting. The program will be presented under the direction of Mrs. Harwood Stellwagen.

The Freeman Fellowship will meet at the parsonage Sunday night, Feb. 23. The program will be presented by the Rev. Ray Hamer, who will speak on Abraham Lincoln.

A Men and Boy's banquet will be held at the Marley church Thursday night, Feb. 20. A. Hunter Chapman, superintendent of the Lincoln-Way high school, will be the speaker. Tickets are available from the Marley Brotherhood.

The BYF will sponsor a box social Sunday night, Feb. 16 in the Marley church for their parents and the Freeman Fellowship.

The Marley Mother's club will meet at the home of Mrs. William Loucks, Friday evening, Feb. 28. Members are to bring bakery for a silent auction.

The Jolly Neighbors Pinochle club met Wednesday night in the home of Mrs. Herman Benck. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Richard McCarthy, Mrs. William Dudlicek and Mrs. John Riley. Refreshments were served from a white cloth covered table decorated with Valentine motifs. She was assisted by her daughters Ruth and Irene. The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. William Dudlicek.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Huttenhoff and children Cindy and Mickey of New Lenox were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Sass and Mr. and Mrs. Loren Sass were guests Saturday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Peterson in Melrose Park.

The total collected for the March of Dimes in the Marley area was $74.66. Mrs. Francis Nelson, chairman, reports that this amount was received from clubs, the school and the Mother's March.

The Bremen Beat

By EDWIN BRUELL

"In our commerce department we try to prepare our students for initial clerical jobs in business," Wallace Carpenter, chairman of the Commerce Department at Bremen community high school, stated.

The department tends to have more girls than boys enrolled, since there are more job opportunities for girls in positions requiring shorthand, typing, and business machine training.

Carpenter stated that, for the student who acquires a good background in English and training in commerce, it is possible upon graduation to earn a salary of $250 to $280 a month. He added that the average salary is about $230 a month, noting that the job opportunities are greatest in the Chicago loop because of a relatively large turnover and a measure of difficulty in keeping help.

Area opportunities for employment are much more limited, with a number of graduates obtaining jobs in Blue Island, Harvey, and Oak Forest.

What does the business employer look for in engaging help? He checks on grades, attendance, punctuality, and the ability to get along with people.

"I have never seen a set of statistics from any study showing that business employees are largely discharged for lack of ability. Almost invariably reasons for discharge deal with problems of personality and attitude," Carpenter commented.

He noted that the employer is somewhat selective now because of expanded business operations and the growing need for help. Thus, a relative shortage of competent stenographic and clerical workers exists.

Appearance Important

Appearance and grooming are important, and school attempts to make students concerned with these matters by giving close attention to them thru the use of pamphlets and books in the "Office Practice" course. In this study an attempt is made to simulate actual office conditions.

A carefully planned series of courses has been set up for the commerce major at Bremen, so that the proper sequence will result for most beneficial effect.

The freshman enrolls in General Business I, a survey course. A sophomore studies General Business II, which includes a semester of record keeping and a semester of business arithmetic. This latter study requires a knowledge of simple mathematics for best benefit.

As a junior in commerce, the Bremenite enters the necessary fields of typing, shorthand, and bookkeeping. On reaching senior status, the intricacies of advanced typing, advanced shorthand, and office practice are engaged in by the student. The latter course involves the use of office machinery as well as a comprehensive typing up of all the previous and advanced learnings.

An optional course at Bremen is business law, the students of which are frequently not commerce majors. These students explore the laws of contracts, property, negotiable instruments, agency, wrongs, buyer and seller dealings, and other pertinent knowledge.

Use Many Machines

Another helpful course open to any students is personal typing, offered not for job purposes but for the everyday uses which anyone may have for typing.

Keeping charge of the various commercial machines at Bremen is a sizable enterprise, for the department as, at the students' disposal, an electric typewriter, numerous manual typewriters, ten key adding machines, rotary and key-driven calculators, voice transcription units, and a duplicator.

Minor repairs are frequently made at school, such as on typewriters, which are in use eight periods a day, often with beginners operating them.

"The other equipment seldom needs service calls because of the school policy of purchasing dependable machines and because of the good care of these machines taken by the students," Carpenter declared, adding that carefulness is stressed at the outset of the students' commercial training.

Besides Carpenter, who teaches office practice and commercial law, other members of the commerce staff are Vernon Peterson, Business I and II and Office Practice; Jo Ann Crawford, Shorthand I and II and Typing II; Marion Imbrey, Shorthand I and Typing I; Delores Johnson, Business I and II; and Mrs. Elizabeth Dellinger, personal typing and bookkeeping.

THIS WEEK -In Washington

Congress appears this to be confusing two issues—the farm problem and Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson. The first baffles it and the second infuriates it.

Unable to agree on a practical approach to reversing the downward trend in farm income the Senate and House Agriculture Committees are concentrating on knocking down what Benson proposes.

Anyone listening to the farm debate in Congress this session may end up knowing considerably more about Benson than about the problems that beset farmers. The Secretary, apparently, has an unlimited capacity to shed criticism.

This is a regrettable state of affairs in Washington. Farmers are in trouble and that is for certain, but tarring and feathering Benson won't change that. So, what is all the shouting about? Neither Benson nor Congress wants to heap more coals on the heads of already troubled farmers, but they have widely different ideas about how to help them.

Benson has said over and over that what he wants is the opportunity for farmers to produce fully and freely in order that supply and demand may establish both the amount of production and the price it will bring in the markets.

Government controls, he argues, can neither establish fair prices nor determine the amount of production. Farmers, he says, must be given greater freedom to manage their farms and make their own decisions.

Decisions by Washington bureaucrats cannot be made to apply wisely or equitably to all farmers, or ven to all the producers of one commodity, Benson contends. There are many who know from experience that that is so.

Granting that abrupt removal of all controls and price supports would disrupt markets demoralize prices and bankrupt hundreds of thousands of farmers, Benson insists that farm programs must lead farmers toward greater freedom of choice—to stay on the farm or move to other jobs.

Congress' rebuttal is that it is both a folly and heartless to so tighten the screws on farmers that they'll be starved off their farms without first providing them a reasonable opportunity to find jobs elsewhere.

President Eisenhower has reported to Congress that there are too many farmers, in fact 2,700,000 too many. It would help if they would just go away and let the remaining 2,100,000 produce all the food and fiber we need.

The production per man hour of work on farms has been increasing much more rapidly than the number of people wanting to eat and wear clothes. Mr. Eisenhower said farming efficiency has increased more since 1900 than in all of the previous 2000 years and that production per hour worked has doubled since 1940.

Benson says that the way to decrease production and the number of farmers, is to reduce price supports and other programs which enable the inefficient to eek out a living off of government handouts.

Angry congressmen retort that what Benson is proposing is that he be given authority to "plow under" three out of every five farmers. They know something Benson doesn't; that those farmers come in handy on election day.

Law On The Farm

By NORM KRAUSZ

Dower is the surviving spouse's life estate in an undivided one-third of the real property owned by the deceased spouse during marriage. It exists in favor of either spouse in Illinois.

At one time dower was automatic in Illinois; that is, the surviving spouse received this special life estate without any action on his or her part. Today it must be elected. If not elected, the spouse will inherit property from the deceased spouse according to the laws of descent or according to the decedent's will. The election to take dower must be made (1) within 10 months after the death of the other spouse if there is no will and letters of administration have not been issued; (2) within 10 months after issuance of the letters of administration; (3) within 10 months after admission of the will to probate; or (4) in other cases, within the limited discretion of the probate court. The election in downstate counties is made in the office of the recorder of deeds of the county where the real estate is located.

If the deceased spouse had a will, the surviving spouse's right to elect dower is barred unless the will is renounced or unless it states otherwise.

Until dower is taken or "perfected" by the election procedure, it is said to be "inchoate," which means that it is a mere possibility. This inchoate dower exists in real estate owned at any time during marriage. It can be lost by voluntary release, failure to elect, divorce (if the surviving spouse was at fault) or statutory provision.

Dower is more than an ordinary life estate. It is debt-free and cannot be attached by creditors of the deceased spouse even though his debts cannot otherwise be satisfied. Because of this attribute, and to reduce probate costs and death taxes upon the death of the surviving spouse, it may be desirable for the surviving spouse to elect dower rather than to take out-right ownership of real estate according to the laws of descent.

PTA News

TINLEY PARK

Third grade students of Bert Fulton school rated proud smiles and warm applause when they presented two skits honoring the 61st Founders Day at the regular meeting of the Tinley Park PTA on Feb. 7. Mrs. Kenneth Schmudde, vice president, presided.

Past presidents of the Tinley Park PTA were introduced as honored guests by Mrs. Sydney Feiwell, PTA historian. The following were presented with corsages during a candle lighting ceremony: Mrs. Edward Henke, Mrs. Burley Anfield, Mrs. L. V. Bacon, Mrs. William Kopp, Mrs. Voris Miller, Mrs. Cecil Bullock, Mrs. Edwin Hug, Mrs. Percy Jochum and Mrs. Donald Hollingshead.

Another skit, "What About Scholarships"? dramatized the details of the Golden Jubilee scholarship fund, all designed to aid prospective teachers gain an education. Mrs. Philip Virtue, Mrs. Lyle Nelson and Mrs. John Jacobs performed.

The Bremen octet, accompanied by Sharon Jochum, sang "Falling in Love With Love" and "Tenderly."

Mrs. Walter Fierke, southwestern area council president, announced that the council will meet in Tinley Park on Feb. 25. Dr. John Cutler, Superintendent of the Tinley Park State hospital, will speak then on the subject, "Mental Health in Children."

The nominating committee named the following as its selection for office next year: Mrs. Kenneth Schmudde, president; Mrs. Walter Goldstrom, vice president; Mrs. Noel Gibbons, secretary; Mrs. Robert Lillie, treasurer.

Mrs. Walter Barton, publications chairman, announced that Tinley Park is the only local unit in the southwestern area council to sell more than 100 subscriptions to date of the National Parent Teacher magazine.

The room count award, based on the number of parents present, was won by Mrs. Harrison, Room 106, in the Bert Fulton school, and Mrs. Phillips, room 100, in the Central school.

Presentation of colors was given by intermediate Girl Scout troop of Tinley Park. Mrs. Schmudde opened the meeting with the PTA prayer.

Refreshments were served by fourth grade mothers in the social hour following the meeting.

ORLAND PARK UNIT

The regular monthly meeting of the Orland Park PTA was held Wednesday evening, Feb. 5 in the school auditorium, with Mrs. Hans Bader presiding. There was a special program to celebrate the 30th anniversary of the founding of the PTA.

The meeting was opened with the presentation of Colors led by Scout Mark Bader, who was assisted by Scouts Jimmy Davidson and Edward Schweiger. Mrs. Gordon Bendix, vice president, read the PTA prayer.

Special guests from the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers were Mrs. F. J. Millward, District Director, Mrs. Walter Fierke, council president and Mrs. Edward Pettijohn, for mer district director.

Several past presidents of the Orland Park PTA were present, including Mrs. Adele Cooper, Mrs. Sherman Knox, Mrs. Gustie Hallinan, Mrs. Robert Lang and Mrs. Jos. Kaiser. All special guests and past presidents were presented with corsages by Mrs. Elmer Libner, chairman of the hospitality committee.

The songs rendered by the Carl Sandburg concert choir were especially enjoyed by all. The boys and girls looked very attractive in their blue robes with white satin collars. Their voices blended beautifully and Mrs. Mary Pierson is to be congratulated on the wonderful work she has done as their director.

The play "Way Back When" amused and delighted the audience. The scene took place in an old-time school room and the cast wore costumes popular in the gay nineties. Members Mrs. Eric Enblom, Mrs. Otto Kettler, Mrs. Eug. Paschall, Mrs. Theo. Ludes and Mrs. Frank Bischoff are very talented.

Mrs. Franklin Loebe, chairman, read the history of the Orland Park PTA, after which Mrs. Pettijohn presented life memberships to Mrs. Adele Cooper, first president, and Mrs. Lillian Knox, first treasurer.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Gordon Bendix and Mrs. Francis Coan were appointed as delegates to the caucus meeting at the Carl Sandburg High school Monday evening, Feb. 10. Mrs. Hans Bader was appointed as an alternate.

A PTA nominating committee consisting of Mrs. Louis Wydeveld, Mrs. Robert Anderson and Mrs. John Taylor, was also appointed. They will make their report at the March meeting.

The Orland Park PTA unit received a certificate of merit from the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers on their publicity record book for the year 1957-58. This was the only one awarded in the Southwest area council and we are very proud of it and want to congratulate Mrs. K. A. Halvorson who compiled the book.

The free will offering, incidental to the annual Founders Day celebration netted a substantial amount, which will be used by the national council to further the work of the association.

A social hour with birthday cake, cookies and coffee served by the third grade room mothers followed.

Cattle that rub and scratch a lot may have lice or mange.

Counties Act to Ban Signs Along Ill. Toll Roads

Restrictions on the use of advertising signs along the 187-mile Illinois Tollway and other limited access highways have been adopted by six of the seven counties thru which the toll highway passes.

This was announced this week by Austin L. Wyman, chairman of the Illinois state toll highway commission, which launched a program for billboard control on a "home rule" basis after commission sponsored legislation failed to be enacted in the pressure of the closing days of the session of last year's Illinois legislature.

Wyman said that the counties of Kane, Lake, McHenry, Winnebago, DuPage and Boone had adopted either ordinances or resolutions restricting advertising signs along the right of way.

"In addition, Cook county officials are studying means of enacting some form of protective legislation," Wyman said, "and we are encouraged by their attitude."

A livestock specialist at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture reports that yearling steers on test at Urbana put on fast, cheap gains when they were fed soybean oil meal in addition to a full feed of ground ear corn all summer on pasture.

Read Galatians 3:23-29.
Ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. (Galatians 3:26.)

An interesting sidelight on the parable of the prodigal son is found in John Wesley's notes on the New Testament. He says: "In the 30th verse the elder son had unkindly said 'This, thy son'. The father mildly reproves him and tenderly says, 'This, thy brother.' Amazing intimacy that the best of men ought to account sinners their brethren, and should especially remember this relation when they show any inclination to return."

Jewish Christians had no proper cause to murmur at the reception of the gentiles into the flock, nor Pharisees at the reception of the sinners.

Such a conception of brotherhood is firmly rooted in our relation with the Father. His love is what enables us, selfish and sinful men that we are, to find the secret of loving one another.

See the picture of the angry, scornful brother pointing his finger and saying, "This, thy son." Against this censorious tone came the gentle words, "This, thy brother." Does this not rebuke us all?

PRAYER

Our Father, we are reconciled to Thee by Thy merciful and loving gift in the death of Thy Son. We have joy in the reconciliation which restores our love to Thee and to one another. In the name of our blessed Redeemer we pray. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Under God, the loving Father, men become brothers through Christ, His Son.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The spiritual relationship of God and man will be a topic dealt with at Christian Science services this Sunday.
Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Soul" is the Golden Text from Isaiah (25:9): "Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us; this is the Lord; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation."
Selection from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (120:4): "Soul, or Spirit, is God, unchangeable and eternal; and man coexists with and reflects Soul, God, for man is God's image."
Scriptural readings will include the following from Psalms (43:5): "Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God."

In the day of my trouble I will call upon Thee; for Thou wilt answer me.—(Psalm 86, 7.)

How wonderfully blest are those who are so strong and steadfast in their faith—who, whenever it wavers for an instant, affirm it at once restored! They shall never be long desolate or sorrowed, for they live in God

GOP Will Give Salute to Women of Four States

Women of four states—Illinois, Wisconsin, Indiana and Missouri—will attend a "Salute to Women" luncheon at Sheraton hotel, Chicago, on Saturday, Feb. 15, to honor an Ohio congresswoman and four Illinois women.

Date of the luncheon, significantly, falls at the close of Race Relations week, Feb. 9-15 and immediately preceding Brotherhood week, Feb. 16-22.

Co-chairmen of the event are Mrs. Mame Mason Higgins, Chicago coordinator of women's activities for the Cook county Republican central committee, and Mrs. Roger Faherty, Chicago. They are being assisted by Mrs. Audrey Peak, Winchester, Ill., director of women's activities for the Illinois Republican state central committee.

Mrs. Frances P. Bolton, Republican congresswoman from Ohio's 22nd District, will be the principal speaker. Rep. Bolton has served in Congress since 1940 and is celebrated as an authority on legislation dealing with U. S. foreign policy and as a leading sponsor of nursing legislation in the Congress.

In 1953 President Eisenhower appointed her a delegate to the 8th general assembly of the United Nations, the first woman so to represent congress.

Her UN services were notable for her efforts in the areas of racial prejudice, her tireless work on colonial problems, and her co-authorship of a comprehensive report on the UN.

Slated to be honored with Mrs. Bolton for outstanding governmental service are B. Fain Tucker, circuit court judge in Chicago; Mrs. Earle Searcy, Springfield, clerk of the Illinois supreme court; Juwell S. Rogers, Chicago, assistant U.S. attorney; Miss Lucia T. Thomas, Chicago, assistant Cook county state's attorney, and Mrs. Myrtle Stryker, Chicago, assistant Illinois attorney general.

Invitations have been sent to more than 500 women in the four states. Guests are expected from Fort Wayne, Gary, South Bend and Hammond, Ind.; Springfield, Ill.; Milwaukee and Racine, Wis.; and St. Louis, Mo.

The luncheon will be the first session of its kind to be held by women in Illinois. Numerous state officials, including U. S. Senator Dirksen and Gov. Stratton have been invited to attend.

The Southlands

DORIS WOLFSON
KELlogg 2-3840

The Southlands Property Owners association held its annual election of officers Feb. 6, with the following results:

President, Leonard Wolfson; vice president, Nick Bink; secretary, Ivan Snyder; Treasurer, Earl Hammond. Board of directors: Wolfson, Bink, Snyder, Hammond, Bell, Yokley, Goble, Peters, and Richard.

The Association voted unanimously to sponsor a Teen club, appointing Mrs. Karl Seppa and Lester Rockrohr as its representatives. Mrs. Arthur Graefen, president of the Mothers' club, and an appointee from the PTA will also serve on the Teen club committee.

A special meeting of all parents of teen-agers in the area is being arranged. A concentrated effort for increased membership in the Southlands Property Owners association is underway.

Membership Drive committee consists of Mrs. Goble, Mrs. Seppa, Mrs. Uitto, Mrs. Wolfson. They will soon be ringing doorbells of new neighbors and non-members. A prize will be given at each Association meeting.

Mrs. Louis Flood, chairman of the Entertainment committee, announces a Penny Auction to be held at the close of the March meeting. Refreshment committee, Mrs. Roy Bressi, Mrs. Earl Hammond. Welcome is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Thomas, two new association members and residents in the community.

The Mothers club mapped out its major activities for the year. The Hot Dog Luncheon Feb. 18 at Kirby school will include potato chips and cupcake. There will be a card and bunco party April 9 at the Legion hall, with prizes and refreshments. Oct. 4 is the date set for the Mothers club annual dance.

Scout news centers around the Blue and Gold banquet coming up Feb. 27. Mrs. Goble den mother, feels it is all worthwhile if Johnny Moskal's thoughtfulness is indicative of the feeling of her "Cubs". He surprised and presented her two hand-made clothes horses. The Scouts of den 1 were taken to the movie, "Old Yeller" Feb. 6 in Harvey. Refreshments were provided by Mrs. Goble.

Mrs. Louis Flood, den mother, would like all boys in the area aged eight thru ten to call her at KELlogg 2-3221. Scouting is fun!

Wilson Carlton is a patient in Ingalls Memorial hospital in Harvey. In view of the seriousness of his condition, friends and neighbors are rallying round the Carlton family with whatever help they can give. Our sincere wishes for Mr. Carlton's well being.

Ralph Morrissey is home from the hospital where he will be confined for a few weeks. Our wishes for a speedy recovery.

Donald Bormet celebrated his 19th birthday Feb. 6. Those dividing the birthday cake were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Bormet and Glenn, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bormet and Marilyn, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wolfson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bormet parents. Onlooker, Nancy Lee Bormet.

Mrs. Fred Dinger's cheerful spirit has been missing from community activities lately due to temporary poor health. We hope you feel fine very soon, Martha!

Mabel Bink should have a few words of encouragement. A busy schedule and a bad back don't go well together. We would like to hear that pain has permanently gone.

A CONGRATULATORY KISS is bestowed on the cheek of Bill Klecka by his mother, Mrs. Robert Klecka as he was presented an Eagle Scout badge, the highest rating in Boy Scouts. The presentation was made during the Blue and Gold banquet held in St. George Catholic church, Tinley Park, Saturday night, to mark Boy Scout Week. Bill, whose flash portrays the awards he had to work for in order to reach the coveted Eagle award, is the second boy in Tinley Park to be so honored. He is a member of Scout troop 255.
